Nova'k

A paving stone that will allow for unconventional approach to concrete surfaces. It is a solution for those who are looking for geometrical forms, on the one hand, and on the other hand, forms that distinguish themselves from patterns made of rectangular paving stones. Combined with the available colors it allows a wide choice of more or less dynamic paving surfaces. It has great design potential. Properly used will enliven the raw in form – minimalist – design of the house, fitting in and at the same time breaking the simplicity of the modern style. It will also work well in the surroundings of traditional architecture, emphasizing its classical character. Regardless of where it is used: driveway, sidewalk, path, terrace – it will catch the eye, impressing with its unique laying pattern.
